

Charlotte Hornowski

“The wider the range of possibilities we offer children, the more intense will be their motivations and the richer their experiences.”

Loris Malaquzzi

Charlotte Hornowski has been in the early childhood education field for over 10 years.

Ms. Hornowski’s speciality is engaging our youngest learners, Pre Kindergarten and Kindergarten. Her passion is creating an environment where young children can build the important foundation of learning through a hands-on, discovery method. Ms.

Hornowski received her Early Childhood teaching degree from James Madison University in 2005. She taught Kindergarten abroad at Marymount International School in Rome, Italy in 2004. Charlotte began her teaching career at a Title 1 school in Baltimore City Public Schools in 2010. Ms. Hornowski strives to provide all children with an equal opportunity to superb education. In August of 2012 Ms. Hornowski was the Director of The Goddard School in Sparks, MD. She managed and motivated twenty-eight early childhood educators. She ensured there was quality and engaging instruction on daily basis. She also worked very closely with families to ensure thorough interpersonal relationships and communication. Ms. Hornowski closely monitored children’s records and ensured state regulations were being met at the school. Ms. Hornowski continued her teaching career in Anne Arundel County Public Schools in 2013. She taught Kindergarten and Pre-Kindergarten for the next eight years. In 2018 Ms. Hornowski received the Central Maryland Chamber of Commerce Elementary Educator of the Year award. She received her Masters in Education from La Salle University in 2020. Ms. Hornowski has a true passion for Early Childhood Education. She strongly believes these early years are critical for developing the foundation and love of education for children. Ms. Hornowski is extremely excited to help grow the Early Childhood industry and provide meaningful education for our future leaders.
